My Commission Expires:

The holder of a Virgin Islands Certificate of Limited Practice as a Legal Intern, with the written and informed consent of the party to be represented, may perform, under the full and complete personal supervision of the Supervising Attorney, any act which may be performed by a regularly admitted member of the Virgin Islands Bar, except:

- (1) representing a defendant in a criminal case in which any of the charged offenses is punishable by more than six (6) months incarceration;
- (2) continuing to represent the client in any matter where:
 - (A) the client withdraws his or her prior written informed consent; or
 - (B) the presiding judicial officer or comparable official of an administrative agency determines that the Eligible Legal Intern is being inadequately supervised or is rendering incompetent representation.
- 9. I further certify that I understand that under no circumstances may an applicant for a Virgin Islands Certificate of Limited Practice as a Legal Intern lawfully perform any of these acts until and unless the Supreme Court grants the application and the applicant is administered the oath or affirmation of office; and
- 10. I agree to furnish such information and reports regarding my practice as a legal intern as may be prescribed by the VISCR 202.3, including but not limited to VISCR 202.3(c)(2)(B), including the obligation to file the Annual Registration Statement with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel or other designated entity, including payment of the annual assessment fee and pay annual dues to the Virgin Islands Bar Association both in accordance with VISCR 202.3(d) subsections (1) and (2), respectively; and
- 11. I understand that approval of my application shall not constitute a finding of good moral character and fitness for the purposes of meeting the qualifications for admission to the practice of law.
- 12. I hereby acknowledge that my application for admissions to the Virgin Islands Bar is a continuing application and that it is my responsibility to provide prompt written notification to the Director of Bar Admissions of any updated information in any aspect of this application.
